

PROJECT - LIFE CORRIDORS OF CESAR AND GUAJIRA
Thematic Focus	Energy Transition
Sector	Mines and Energy.
Entities/Areas	Ministry of Mines and Energy
Contributing Partner	Private
National Development Plan Strategy to which it points	Just Energy Transition and Energy Communities
SDG to which it points	SDG 7 – Affordable and Clean Energy, and SDG 11 - Sustainable Cities and Communities
Project Description	Project Purpose	In 2021, PRODECO relinquished its mining titles to exploit the Calenturitas and La Jagua coal mines in central Cesar, and the country ceased to generate more than 4,000 direct jobs and receive USD 200 million annually in royalties and taxes. To allow the decarbonization processes to be carried out in a fair manner with the former mining workers
	Objectives	- Prepare the departments for decarbonization through economic diversification and labor reconversion under sustainability principles, promoting new anchor economies, generating added value, and providing alternatives through the development of popular economies. - Increase resilience to socioeconomic shocks from future mine closures
	Geographic Area of Influence	Cesar and La Guajira.
	Is it included within the goals of the National Development Plan (NDP)	Yes <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>
	Structuring Phase	Prior structuring stage
	Target (km), (panels, etc.):	Labor reconversion of more than 4,000 former PRODECO employees and scheduled labor reconversion for the 24,000 employees who currently depend on this mining activity

PROJECT - LIFE CORRIDORS OF CESAR AND GUAJIRA
	Is it located in a protected area or with indigenous/Afro-descendant communities:	Yes_X___No___Which_____
Duration by Phases	Pending to be defined
Contributions	Total Value	US$ 2.870 Million
	Nation Contribution	$0
	Contribution from Territorial Entities	$0
	Private Contribution	US$ 2.870 Million
Investment Opportunity	Economic diversification of the territory projected to generate income like the coal royalties received by the departments.	